

FIGHTING BEGINS BEFORE CAPITAL

Bulgarians and Turks Struggle on Plain in Front of Constantinople.

BATTLE'S RESULT UNKNOWN

British Cruiser Arrives in Bosphorus to Protect Foreigners.

London, November 5.—It was officially announced in Constantinople that fighting has begun between the Bulgarians and Turks at the Tchatalia forts, according to a dispatch from that city. Except for a few straggling detachments of men in fighting formation and fleeing Turkish troops, the country beyond the Tchatalia forts, forming the last Turkish defenses before Constantinople, is now clear of Ottoman soldiers. The invading Bulgarians on the plains below Tchatalia hills present a front extending about thirty miles across the Peninsula.

British Cruiser on Scene. Constantinople, November 5 (T.M.).—The British cruiser Weymouth, engaged the Dardanelles to-day and will arrive in the Bosphorus some time to-night. She is the first foreign vessel of war to reach Constantinople for the protection of foreigners. French and Russian warships are expected to arrive to-morrow.

No important news has reached here from the seat of war in the Eastern Turkish provinces, and none of the operations are known from Scutari, Monastir and Saloniki. The Turks are pouring troops into the forts along the Tchatalia line, where they are preparing for a renewal of the struggle against the Bulgarians. The weather is very cold.

Rain is falling on the plains, while it is snowing in the mountains, and this renders the movements of both armies very difficult.

Occupy Alessio. Rieka, Montenegro, November 5.—The Montenegrins to-day occupied the town of Alessio to the southeast of Scutari and Port San Giovanni di Medua. The Servians and Montenegrins have joined forces at Ipek and are advancing against Diakova into the northwest of Priarina.

Ask Powers to Stop War. Paris, November 5.—The Turkish ambassador, Rifat Pasha, presented to Premier Poincaré this evening the request of the Turkish government for mediation, and the Foreign Office immediately took steps to acquaint the other powers with the new Ottoman proposal.

The Turkish note says: "The Ottoman government requests the great powers to undertake collective mediation of the conditions of peace." Before undertaking to act, M. Poincaré emphasized that it must be clearly understood that all idea of forcing pressure was excluded, and that the powers could not undertake the task unless all the belligerents were agreeable.

Turks Defeated Again. Sofia, November 5.—The Turks have suffered another severe defeat between Serrai and Tchorlu. The losses on both sides far exceed those at the battle of Lala. The battle lasted two days, and the Turks offered desperate resistance. Official information was conveyed in official reports received here at midnight.

"GOT TO GO WEST"

New York, November 5.—Senator Joseph M. Dixon, Progressive national chairman, after scanning the returns from New York, Massachusetts and several other Eastern States said: "We have got to go to the West for the Roosevelt vote."

Senator Dixon's predicted landslide for Roosevelt went to Governor Wilson. His figures for New York City were: Wilson, 215,000; Roosevelt, 175,000; Taft, 125,000.

BRYAN CONGRATULATES HIM

Believes Wilson's Administration Will Be Successful. Lincoln, Neb., November 5.—W. J. Bryan to-night sent the following telegram to Governor Wilson: "I most heartily congratulate you and the country upon your election. Your splendid victory has borne fruit. I am sure your administration will prove a blessing to the nation and a source of strength to our party."

Fashion and Comfort Demand Furs

Furs have been steadily changing caste for some time, and now, with our well-heated houses and the resulting tendency of women to dress lightly throughout the winter, they are regarded as a necessity and no longer a luxury. This great vogue for furs has brought out most desirable styles and values in the medium-priced pieces, so that the problem of furs is no longer the appalling matter of a few years ago.

Furs of Quality

A wide range of variety in Sets and Coats, also separate pieces. Right in price, right in quality. Satisfaction goes with every order placed with us. We are in the FUR business exclusively, and for that reason are better prepared to supply your needs.

WARNING TO OFFICIALS

Indianapolis, Ind., November 5.—Governor Thomas R. Marshall, Democratic candidate for Vice-President, when assured of the success of the national ticket said:

"The Democratic victory of to-day will result in a restoration of representative government in America. If Democratic officials, both State and national, shall only remember that active duty consists in the enforcement of the law and in the insistence upon legislative compliance with Democratic platforms and principles; if legislative representatives will remember that they are to represent the people, and not any interest whatever, and will be zealous to formulate into legislation the principles either enunciated in Democratic platforms or growing out of the basic principles of Jeffersonian democracy; and if judicial representatives will give us the perfection of reason in the light of to-day and not in the light of two centuries ago, and shall not be content to construe and not to make statutory law."

PRESIDENT TAFT CONCEDES DEFEAT

Cincinnati, Ohio, November 5.—President Taft at 11 o'clock to-night conceded the election of Governor Wilson. He issued the following statement from his brother's home here:

"The returns indicate the election of Governor Wilson to the presidency. This means an early change in the economic policy of the government in the near future. If this change can be made without halting progressive prosperity, I sincerely hope it may be. The vote for Mr. Roosevelt, the third party candidate, and for Mr. Debs, the Socialist candidate, is a warning that their propaganda in favor of fundamental changes in our constitutional representative government has formidable support.

"While the experiment of a change in the tariff is being carried out by the Democratic administration it behooves Republicans to gather again to the party standard and pledge anew their faith in their party's principles and to organize again to defend the constitutional government handed down to us by our fathers. Without compromising our principles we must convince and win back former Republicans, and we must reinforce our ranks with Constitutional-loving Democrats.

"We favor every step of progress toward more perfect equality of opportunity and the ridding society of injustice. But we know that all progress worth while making is possible with our platform of government, and to sacrifice that which is of the highest value in our governmental structure for undefined and impossible reforms is the wildest folly. We must face the danger with a clear knowledge of what it is. The Republican party is equal to the task."

OBITUARY

T. W. Pemberton.

The funeral services over the body of Thomas William Pemberton, to be conducted this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Second Presbyterian Church by the Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., will be simple and without ostentation. As is usual on the death of a man so prominent in business and religious affairs, the most representative men of the city will follow the body to its last resting place. The burial will be made in Hollywood. The officers and employees of the Life Insurance Company of Virginia will attend in a body.

John P. De Butts, Sr. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Middleburg, Va., November 5.—John P. De Butts, Sr., died at his home near Weibourne, Loudoun County, on Sunday, at the age of seventy-five. He was a Confederate veteran and a highly respected citizen. He is survived by five sons—John P. Jr., H. Gratton, D. French, Walter and Richard.
